STORE MANAGER HELD UP HERE, ROBBED OF $300

Salem Boys Attempt To Escape From County Jail, Says Sheriff

PRIED UP BOARDS ON FLOOR; CAUGHT IN ACT BY WRIGHT

Youths' Plan Was To Drop
From Second to First Floor Cell

AIDED IN ATTEMPT
BY LISBON YOUTH

Sheriff Says Boys Caused Him More Trouble Than Most Prisoners

Lisbon, Feb. 8.—The fact that Shelby Carlisle of Lisbon, Charles Rogers, Fred Taylor and Fred Kelly, all of Salem, attempted to make a
"getaway" from the county jail recently was not the only thing that brought out in the minds of the jailers the fact that these boys when they were taken before Judge E. R. Eastman in common pleas No. 2 for sentence last week.

Quick action on the part of Sheriff
George Wright prevented the prisoners from accomplishing their purpose,
and after the work of the four youths
had been discovered, they were immediately separated and placed apart
in other parts of the county jail.

The men first took supports from the tops in their cells, and with these pried up floor boards, it being their plan to drop from a cell on the second floor to one on the first floor, this cell being directly opposite the office of Sheriff Wright.

For several days the quartet
worked quietly on their plot to escape, but there was a slip in their plans, and an unusual sound attracted the ear of the sheriff. He entered the cell where the men were confined and they were caught in the act.

Cause Much Trouble
"We never had so much trouble with young men as with these," said Sheriff Wright. "At least two of them have no idea of what is being held back, and they show no signs of repentance. They are of the sneaking kind."

"The effort of these men to get out of jail was crude. Little did they realize that they could get just so far,
and then they would be up against something different in the way of jail protection, and about which prisoners know nothing. They might have succeeded in tearing up the floor of their cell, but this would have been the limit of their effort to escape."

"Prosecuting Attorney Robert M.
Brooks and I were ready to go before the court and make known the real character of these men, but by three of them pleading guilty and another convicted by a jury, we did not believe we should tell all we knew just at this time."

Rogers and Chalmers Votaw, also of Salem, still have to face the indictment returned by the January
grand jury for the assault on Lawrence Mangus.

ROBS HOME, KILLS FARMER AND WIFE

Youth Confesses He Shot
Former Employers,
Police Say

Cleveland, Feb. 8.—Said by police to have confessed the double murder of Ralph Hoffman and wife at their farm home near Fremont, O., Saturday night, William Clark, 25,
former farmhand, but more lately
steam fitter and at times bootlegger, was to be taken to Fremont today to stand trial for the crime.

He was arrested yesterday morning at the home of a sister here, and calmly confessed, police say, that he had shot his former employers
down in cold blood.

The Hoffmans were shot as they returned late Saturday night from their weekly shopping trip to Gib-sonburg, Clark, according to authorities, had entered the Hoffman home during their absence, ransacked it for valuables and then lay down to await the return of the couple.

When the car drove into the yard,
he ordered, "hands up."
"Don't shoot Bill. You can have anything we've got," Hoffman is said to have replied.

Armed by being recognized,
Clark fired. The bullet lodged in Hoffman's abdomen. Hoffman fled, and it was only as he heard another shot that he realized he was not being pursued. The second shot had wounded Mrs. Hoffman. Hoffman crawled through the heavy snow to the home of a neighbor.

Returning they found Mrs. Hoffman shot through the forehead, her body wedged between a pump and a house where they carried her to the latter. Hoffman was taken to a Presbyterian hospital, where an operation failed to save his life.

Old Dances Staging "Come-Back"

Cleveland, Feb. 8.—Old time dances, which appealed to the fathers and mothers of the present day into their youth, are coming back into their own.
Ohio dance masters, ending their convention, declared here today.

Teachers of dancing from Pennsylvania, West Virginia,
Michigan and Ohio attended the convention to be initiated into the mysteries of the heel
and toe polka, the Varsouvienne
and the Rye waltz.

There is also a strong call,
they said, for the plain quadrille, the Virginia reel, the Cuban waltz, the Duchess, the three step and the Oxford waltz.

3 BUILDINGS BURN AT WRIGHT FIELD

Motors In Repair Building
And Spare Parts For Planes Destroyed

Dayton, Feb. 8.—Starting in what is known as the "dope" house at Wilbur Wright field, fire of unknown origin
this afternoon destroyed three of the main buildings at an estimated loss of about $250,000.

The main loss was suffered on the engine repair building. This building housed a number of motors undergoing repairs and a large stock of spare parts, supplies and machinery for repairing aeroplanes.

Other principal buildings destroyed
were the dope house and the oil reclamation building, where several thousand dollars worth of spare parts, for reconditioning motor oil was housed.

A large tank containing approximately 30,000 gallons of oil was the center of the fire fighting activities.
Several streams of water were played on it continually in an effort to keep it from exploding.

A number of smaller tanks of oil and dope did explode early in the blaze, however, which made the flames exceptionally spectacular and greatly increased the danger of the flames spreading to other buildings.

SCOUT BIRTHDAY BEING OBSERVED BY SALEM BOYS

The Boy Scout movement is 16 years old this week. Yesterday in practically all the churches of the city, some notice was taken of this anniversary week. All Scouts, who were able, attended church services either as individuals or as an organization. Troop 1 of Salem went in a body and was recognized from the pulpit.

Window displays of Scouting work are being arranged in several parts of the city. Some of the troops are planning a Father and Son banquet, and all Scouts will have many activities during the week.

The Scout oath is:
"I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout law, to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

New York, Feb. 8.—Peter G. Stamm broker, who has been missing since Sept. 26, when he vanished simultaneously with $60,000 of his firm's bank deposits, has been discovered living in Mexico, according to word received here.

NEW AIR SERVICE UPHEAVAL STARTED

Davis Orders Investigation
Of Lobbying by Army
Air Officers.

Washington, Feb. 8.—With one air service upheaval barely subsided,
through the resignation of Col. Wm.
Mitchell, another and perhaps more far-reaching row started today when Secretary of War Davis ordered an investigation of alleged "lobbying"
activities on the part of officers of the army air service.

The probe has been sanctioned by President Coolidge, whose ire has been aroused over the opposition of air service officers to the administration's air program, as embodied in the Morrow board report, and their efforts in behalf of the Patrick plan for an unified air service.

Davis has ordered Maj. Gen. Eli Helmick, inspector general of the army, to conduct one phase of the investigation, and, oddly enough, has

HOILES IS CHOSEN ALLIANCE LEADER FOR MOUNT DRIVE

Half Million To Be Sought
As City's Share of Big Endowment Fund.

Alliance, Feb. 8.—The initial movement in a city wide campaign to raise $500,000 for Mount Union's $2, 000,000 Endowment and Building Fund was incorporated in an announcement this morning that F. A.
Hoiles had accepted the chairmanship of the biggest civic undertaking. Alliance has ever known. Members of the college board of trustees expressed their enthusiastic approval of Mr. Hoiles as city chairman.

A special meeting of the board of trustees was held in the national campaign headquarters but the results of the meeting were not made known until today. At the meeting the decision was made not to increase tuition fees in spite of the increased costs and maintenance of the college during the past year but to continue to give to the hundreds of young men and women who seek admission to Mount Union a liberal education at a nominal cost.

No date for the launching of the Alliance campaign was decided but the question was left open to a special committee of local citizens which is now being formed. A meeting will be held Monday at national campaign
headquarters to discuss with Mr.
Hoiles the project of a local campaign organization. Tentatively it was agreed that between 400 and 500 citizens would be formed to constitute an Alliance campaign committee of which Mr. Hoiles would be the head.

No member of that committee would be asked to carry any greater responsibility in the success of the local campaign than he was willing to bear. As soon as arrangements

Prisoner Forced To Shake Hands With a Dead Man, Collapses

Youngstown, Feb. 8.—For forcing a negro prisoner to shake hands with a dead man who had been brought to the East Youngstown police station, Captain Marty Hines and Sergeant George Pavlic, both of East Youngstown, were under suspension today. They were charged with misconduct in office.

The negro nearly died of fright
according to Frank Cunningham,
who suspended the two officers.

CLAIMS FIANCEE SQUANDERED 5,000 FOR A GOOD TIME

Cleveland, Feb. 8.—Declaring that $5,000 he had advanced, Mrs. Salla Sleem, 33, his fiancée, to purchase furnishings for their prospective home had been squandered in clothes and a "good time," H. J. Bell, a traveling salesman of Waynesboro, Pa., today had caused her arrest on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses.

The woman was held in jail in default of bond.

Bell told Police Prosecutor Julius Kovachy that he met Mrs. Sleem a year ago when a patient at a hospital
here, where she was employed.

The money, he said, he advanced in three separate sums. Arriving in Cleveland, he learned, he told police, that it had not been used for the designed purpose. The arrest followed.

FIND MAN'S BODY LYING IN DITCH

New York, Feb. 8.—Bodies of two well-dressed women, found in snow banks in widely separated parts of the city today furnished the police with two baffling mysteries.

One of the victims, young and pretty, had been shot twice.

The other, middle-aged, bore no
marks of violence.

The police were investigating the possibility that both were thrown from automobiles.

MUSSOLINI'S FIST BRANDISHING MAY BLOCK DEBT PLAN

War-Like Gesture Against Germany Has Its Effect
In United States.

ITALIAN PREMIER WAS DENOUNCED

Senate Opposition To Debt
Terms May Be Strengthened by Threats.

Washington, Feb. 8.—A ripple in European waters sometimes becomes a wave when it reaches the shores of America.

Administration leaders were perturbed and concerned today over the first brandishing of Benito Mussolini against Germany.

It is not that they fear the Italian premier will actually carry out his covert threat to "carry the Italian flag" across the frontier, for war between Italy and Germany is considered unthinkable.

The administration's concern is over the effect of Mussolini's warlike gesture on the Italian-American debt settlement, concluded a few months ago and still unrattled by the senate.

The debt pact is facing a hostile senate. It was fought savagely in the house by the Democrats and the insurgent Republicans, and it was ratified there only because the well-oiled efficient administration machine controls the house as completely as the Fascist government controls Italy.

Mussolini Denounced

No such situation, however, prevails in the senate. There the opposition to terms of Italian debt agreement is stronger and more militant than in the house. The Democrats are almost solidly opposed to it, having made it a party issue. The Republican insurgents, like Borah of Idaho, and Brookhart of Iowa, are also opposed to it, and on numerous occasions it has been demonstrated that a coalition of Democrats and Republican insurgents can control the senate.

In the extended debate in the house on the Italian agreement Mussolini was denounced as an autocrat,
a dictator, and a potential "war lord" of southern Europe. Few statesmen of a friendly foreign power have been so vigorously excoriated as was Mussolini during that debate.

Italy was accorded more lenient debt terms than any other debtor nation, even war-torn Belgium. The agreement reached last October amounts to virtual cancellation of the principal or of the interest—either way it is figured. On a principal debt of nearly $2,000,000,000, the Mussolini government will pay somewhat less than one-fourth of one percent in interest over a period of 62 years, and on the same money, American taxpayers are paying 4 1/2 percent.

For the first ten years of the agreement, the payments will amount to little more than $5,000,000 a year, as against the approximately $80,000,000 being paid out by the treasury annually on the same money.

FIND BODIES OF N. YORK WOMEN IN SNOW BANKS

Youngstown, Feb. 8.—With the only clues in their hands consisting of a laundry tag and a watch with initials
"C. G.," police today were trying to solve a murder mystery uncovered
Sunday when the body of a young man was found in a ditch six miles east of here. The man had been shot in the forehead.

Mrs. Mary Halverstadt, East Columbia st. Leetonia, is in Central Clinic hospital here recovering from injuries sustained in a fall in her home Friday.

Her husband, Jesse Halverstadt, found his wife on the floor of the basement of their home late Friday afternoon. She was unconscious, and had apparently fallen down the cellar stairs. She was rushed to the hospital here in an ambulance.

hospital attaches stated Monday that

Family of Wealthy Man Mourns Death Of Woman, Aged 116

Chicago, Feb. 8.—The family of a millionaire was in mourning
today for a dead immigrant woman and their family lot was being prepared to receive her body.

The woman was Mrs. Pauline Fatzl, 116, who came to the United States from her native
Italy in a sailing ship 99 years ago. The millionaire was Edward Hines, the lumber king—the
"Eddie" at whose advent into the world she presided as nurse.

Mrs. Fatzl was conscious and bright of mind to the last and expressed wishes concerning her funeral which Hines has ordered carried out to the last detail.

TWO SCOUT TROOPS TO BE ORGANIZED

Salem Soon To Have Seven
Active Troops, Scout
Executive Says.

Plans for the formation of two new Boy Scout troops in Salem and a discussion of the condition of scouting in Salem at the present time, are contained in a survey made Monday
by Scout Executive Harry A. Wilson.

The executive states one new troop likely will be sponsored by the Knights of Columbus and the other by the English Lutheran church.

Four active troops are now in operation in Salem.

Troop one, oldest in Salem, is headed by Scoutmaster George Trisler and Asst. Scoutmaster Kenneth Jones.
The Kiwanis club sponsored this troop through its scout committee headed by C. J. Craighead. This troop has a wonderful record, and last summer met each morning at 6:30 a. m. The troop has 17 boys.

Troop two, sponsored by the Methodist church, has as its leader, Scoutmaster Harold Maeder and his assistant, Walter Davis. This is the youngest troop in the city, having been organized but about 60 days ago. About 20 boys are on the troop's roll.

The first Presbyterian church sponsors Troop Three, which has as scout master, Robert Wherry, and assistants, Harold Hutchison and Robert Ballard. There are 12 scouts in this troop.

Troop Four, originally sponsored by the English Lutherans is to be turned over to the American Legion.
A. E. Brinkworth will be scoutmaster and William Baker assistant.
About 10 scouts are in this troop.

One new troop has already been organized and with the two other new ones planned, will make seven troops in all here. Troop Five is being formed under the sponsorship of the First Baptist church, with Richard Stirling as scoutmaster. This is the only troop in the city meeting twice a week and is setting a great pace in his pre-registration work. So far eight boys have signed up for this troop.

Waiter Too Plebeian

New York.—The word, "waiter," is considered too plebeian and derogatory a name for the man who serves food to diners in the restaurant and will be changed. The United Restaurant Owners Association of New York announced. The new name will be chosen in a contest.

3 BANDITS HIT VICTIM, TAKE CASH

Thompson, A-P- Store
Manager, Attacked
Saturday Night

STARTED TO BANK
AS STORE CLOSED

Forced In to Passage
Way, Knocked Down
By Bandits

Howard Thompson, manager of the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co. store in the Metzger hotel building, Main st.,
was held up and robbed of about $300 by three bandits Saturday night while on his way to the First National bank to deposit the day's receipts.

This daring robbery in the heart of Salem's business district occurred between 9:10 and 9:15 p. m. when the street was practically deserted, and the police have few clues to work on.

Thompson had intended to bank
the store's Saturday receipts a short time before closing at 9 p. m., but a last minute rush of customers prevented this. After the store closed and his clerks had gone home, his rush of work over, Thompson placed the money and his bank book in his pocket, put on his overcoat and started out the door.

He turned, facing the door, to lock
it. Just as he did so a man, described by him as tall and large, who apparently had been standing close up against the popcorn stand at the west side of the store building, darted out of the shadow, and pressed a revolver against Thompson's back.

Two Pals Join Bandit
"Duck in that hole," commanded the bandit, motioning to the narrow space between the popcorn stand and the Citizens Savings bank.

Thompson, thinking if he could get out on the sidewalk farther, he would attract the attention of some nabber, started to disregard the order.

"None of that stuff, get over there,"
the bandit commanded.

As Thompson was pushed into the dark air space between the two buildings—two smaller, and apparently younger bandits, who had been standing in the darkness against the bank building, leaped out and closed in on him.

One of the smaller bandits stuck a gun in Thompson's side, while the third wrenched at Thompson's collar and twisting his necktie, attempted to strangle him.

One of the bandits hit Thompson behind the ear and then all three jumped on the store manager, forcing him to the ground.

Knocked Unconscious
At this point he lost consciousness
and after a time, when he revived,
he found his overcoat and white store
coat had both been ripped open, his

TRAFFIC SIGNALS READY BY APRIL 1

New Rules for Regulation
Of Traffic Are Being Worked Out

Hopes were expressed by city officials today that the new traffic signal light system will be in operation by April 1.

The contract for furnishing the lights and equipment was awarded Saturday to the Esco Signal Co., of Pittsburgh and Peoria, Ill., for $1, 225, and this company expects to have the system units on the ground
within the next six weeks.

By their contracts the company
furnishes five lights for main down town corners, a control box, wiring,
other equipment, an engineer to supervise the erection of the system,
and an inspector to see that all work
is up to specifications.

The city must do the actual work
of putting up the lights and wires,
and City Electrician Lee Saunders
will have extra help for this work.

Lights will be what is known as standard style. Each signal will have four faces, with three lights on a face. The top light will be green, the middle, light yellow and the bottom light red. Red will be stop, yellow change of traffic and green will be the go signal.

The control box, which will probably be erected at City Hall, will regulate the time of change of the lights and may be operated by hand or au-tomatically.

Safety Director Ernest Schmid
and Chief of Police T. W. Thompson are working on a set of rules for regulation of traffic by means of these signals and these rules will soon be presented to council.

Suit Is Filed Against Ward Products Company and Its Subsidiaries.

SEVEN COMPANIES
AND 8 MEN NAMED

Gigantic Food Monopoly Is Aim of Merger, Says
Federal Charge.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The federal government struck today to prevent the consummation of the $2,000,000, 000 food products merger which has been characterized by its opponents
as a "gigantic food monopoly."

Government attorneys went into the federal court at Baltimore at noon and filed suit against the Ward
Food Products corporation, its officers and subsidiary companies, asking the court to prevent them from completing the proposed consolidation under the Sherman and Clayton act.

Seven corporations and companies and eight individuals were named as defendants. They are:

The Ward Food Products corporation, The Ward Baking corporation,
The Ward Baking company, The General Baking corporation, The General Baking company, The Continental Baking corporation, The United Bakers corporation, William B.
Ward, Howard B. Ward, Wm. Delinger, Paul H. Helms, J. W. Rumbough, B. E. Peterson, George G.
Barber, George B. Smith.

Months of investigation
Action of the government followed several months of investigation by the Department of Justice.

"These investigations developed facts which in the opinion of the department, evidence a clear intention on the part of those responsible for the mergers eventually to bring together the several merged companies
under control of one gigantic corporation," Atty. Gen. Sargent said.

"The formation of the Ward Food Products corporation for the evident
purpose of consummating that plan was the immediate cause of filing the suit."

The government's petition makes the following salient demands:

1. That the Ward interest be adjudged to have violated the Sherman anti-trust law and the Clayton act.

2. That defendants be enjoined from doing any act in furtherance of

DRIVERS' LIABILITY

It is to be assumed that when a group of jurists after due consideration solemnly recommend that every person who drive an automobile should by law be compelled to carry liability insurance, they have reason to believe that such a law would be within the limits of the constitution. Whether it is or not remains to be seen and there are those who would seriously resist it although in entire sympathy with the principle advocated. There had been much discussion of this proposal even before a resolution in its behalf was passed by a convention of judicial officers. It would be a fine thing if there might be some sort of assurance that everyone who suffered damage or injury of any kind through an automobile accident, might be duly compensated, and yet it is hard to see why the automobilist just because he has become a long-suffering object of legislative and police control should be singled out for further attention. Of course, the argument advanced, which has merit is that there are many incompetent and careless drivers, who are utterly irresponsible, financially or otherwise, and that compulsory liability insurance would provide means for compensation for injuries or damages they might inflict. At the same time there is reason to believe that it would add to the ranks of the potentially careless by relieving them of the possibility of damage suits or claims which they might otherwise have to defend. As it is the greater number of automobilists do carry insurance without resort to compulsion and despite the enthusiastic endorsement of the proposal by so many legal lights, there is serious doubt whether a compulsory law of this nature would stand the test of constitutionality. If it did there is just as much reason to believe that a law might be passed to force people to carry life and accident insurance for the protection of their families.

After all the suggestion for compulsory liability insurance for the individual resolves itself into a plan for mutual protection. It is altogether a different matter than workmen's compensation which is justified on the theory of workman's protection in employment. If the suggestion is to be adopted the logical accompaniment would be for the state to set up an insurance fund and issue policies concurrent with and as a part of annual licensing, and this would not apply to transient drivers. That would mean eventually state insurance of all kinds, which is something far from desirable.

There ought to be another way of getting at the evil of reckless driving by irresponsible persons, and there seems to be in the system for licensing drivers only after proper examination, as the law prevails in several states. The possibility of license cancellation for offenses would be a deterrent to carelessness, while the insurance plan might prove to be an encouragement. This view applies also to the suggestion that the insurance plan be limited to those convicted of deliberately reckless driving, or driving while intoxicated. The better remedy is in a stringent license law, empowering judges to establish a license blacklist, in perpetuity when that seems necessary.

OLD-FASHIONED GAMES

The movement for the revival of old-fashioned games may lead to the revival of old-fashioned games in general.

There is already a pronounced popularity for such antique pastimes as checkers and quots. That may be a mere spurt. Once people begin thinking seriously about the ways in which their parents and grandparents amused themselves, they may go far in that direction. This is a conservative age, anyway, in many respects. Why not conservatism in amusements?

There does seem to be a growing demand for the "old stuff." A recreation council in one of the cities has arranged a training course to meet the needs of church organizations, fraternities and various other social groups that want entertainment for adults and young both, other than dancing and card playing.

The course includes training in march figures, active and quiet games of many kinds, tricks and stunts, paper and pencil games, singing and folk games, organum singing, charades and pantomimes, games for mixed groups and hints of game leadership.

The first thing we know, we may all be spinning the plate again, paying in charades and doing performance stunts.

Alaska's Needs

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Washington, Feb. 8.—Pessimism concerning the future of Alaska and a warning that its condition calls for a prompt and sympathetic study on the part of congress are contained in the annual report of Secretary of the Interior Hubert Work. Mr. Work deplors the condition of our largest outlying possession and expresses the opinion that its administration at the hands of nine federal departments and the territory is "of the greatest menace to its development."

"Alaska," writes Mr. Work, "is rapidly becoming a 'lost province.' Without the inspiration of self-government or freedom of local initiative, opportunity for expansion has been curtailed by bureau officials made hesitant by limited authority. "Alaskans have not been encouraged to develop pride of territorial growth or independence of administration. The maximum population of 75,000 whites has shrunk to 20,000 (estimated), and production from its natural resources wavers and recedes."

Inevitably Alaska must compete in the markets with its products, he continues. Climate and soil and transportation are determining factors in a successful competition and are necessarily weighed when developmental work of any sort is contemplated. Climate and soil conditions are fixed by nature. Transportation costs can only be eliminated by home production and consumption.

The situation of Alaska calls for a prompt sympathetic study by congress. Its natural resources and their possibilities, its methods of government and their effect; the attitude which we should assume toward it, whether governmental control should be constructive in type, or continue to cultivate dependency, or be removed entirely, should be weighed by the legislative branch of government. The suggestion that all of the government's activities be merged into one department should have the immediate consideration of congress.

Such a statement coming from the pen of the Secretary of the Interior will probably surprise the population to a great extent. It reveals a situation that is alarming and requires study and correction. Alaska's climate and natural resources are wonderful. Its possibilities are tremendous and in the future, when the United States is looking for a frontier, it will fit in admirably, providing, of course, that it is not neglected in the meantime.

According to Mr. Work, the responsibility for the obligations of the Alaskans to their territory has been neglected by them and interfered with by the federal government. The guardianship of the natives of Alaska on the part of the government has been lax and inadequate. The Department of the Interior annually expends through its Bureau of Education about $400,000 for education in its 85 schools and $125,000 for medical relief. But the distances between settlements in Alaska that have to be negotiated by trails, impassable in winter and difficult in any season, prevent intimate contact and make supervision very difficult. Epidemics of sickness, therefore, break out, and preventable deaths occur. Teeth are lost from neglect and disease is invited because of the lack of available advice and assistance.

Questions And Answers

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Q. Why do some people have trouble in sleeping after drinking coffee at night? A. V. C.

A. Coffee owes its well known stimulating action to the presence of the alkaloid caffeine. This substance has a diuretic action upon the kidney and raises blood pressure. This influence upon blood pressure is probably the reason sleepiness may be prevented by partaking of coffee. Muscular energy is augmented, and the sense of fatigue dissipated by the use of this stimulant.

Q. Where is the station of the Weather Bureau that is nearest the North Pole? M. L.

A. It is at Barrow, Alaska, about 1100 miles south of the North Pole.

Q. Is it true that the puma or mountain lion utters a blood curdling cry? J. D. B.

A. Dr. W. T. Hornaday says that contrary to reports the cry of the mountain lion is a most fearful sound and is unforgettable by one who has heard it. It is a weird half human noise or scream.

Q. What does it cost the government to try to control insects and diseases of plants and animals? M. M. W.

A. In the year 1924, the Department of Agriculture spent $10,500,000 or 24.3 per cent of the total expenditure for this work.

Q. How can coral beads be cleaned? A. A. A.

A. Dissolve a teaspoonful of borax in a pint of warm water. Dip the coral in the water several times, rinse in tepid water and dry.

Q. Why didn't Queen Alexandra become Queen of England upon the death of King Edward? A. C. R.

A. Queen Alexandra was Queen of England by virtue of her being the wife of King Edward. On the death of the monarch, the kingship is inherited by the eldest living son.

Q. Where was Fort Lyon? J. F. E.

A. Fort Lyon, Fergus county, Virginia, was one of the defenses of Washington during the Civil war, from 1861 to 1865. It was a temporary post located one-half mile south of Cameron Park and one-half mile southwest of Alexandria.

Q. When was the mansion House built? A. T. S.

A. If you refer to the official residence of the Lord Mayor of London, this dwelling place was built between 1739 and 1753.

Q. What do Chinese use ginseng for? T. A. T.

A. The little yellow root of the ginseng plant is used by the Chinese as food and medicine. Specimens resembling the human body often crop-

mand their weight in gold because of supposed occult virtues. Neither species of ginseng, however, is considered by the Continental physicians to have any pronounced medicinal qualities.

Q. What will take out an iodine stain? G. N.

A. If it is a fresh stain, spirits of ammonia will remove it.

Q. What is meant by the expression "Barnum was right"? Also "Sherman was right"? P. S. C.

A. The saying "Barnum was right" has reference to the quotation generally attributed to him, "there is a fool born every minute." The expression "Sherman was right" has reference to his saying, "war is hell."

Q. What is meant when it is said that a bill has been engrossed? H. M.

A. An engrossed bill is the final certified copy of a statute which is ready to be signed by the president of the United States or by the governor of a state.

COURT NEWS

Foreclosure Case

The case of the C. F. Specht Lumber Co. against the First Baptist church of Wellsville, which was an action to foreclose a mechanics lien, and filed Aug. 26, 1922, has been taken from the trial list and placed on the execution docket. It has not been determined whether an action in aid of execution will follow.

Case Dismissed

Dismissed at the defendant's costs is the entry made by Judge James G. Moore in the case of J. W. Echols against A. C. McIntosh, filed December 21, 1923, for the foreclosure of a mechanics lien.

Court of Appeals

The court of appeals opened at Warren Monday, but on account of the illness of Judge Pollock of Belmont county, Judge John J. Sullivan of Cleveland will sit with the court. Judge Pollock has been confined to his home at St. Clairsville for several weeks suffering from the effects of a severe cold.

U. S. Grand Jury

Five people from this county have been subpoenaed to appear as witnesses before the United States grand jury at Cleveland, Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. They are: Sheriff George Wright and Postmaster Frank Adams of Lisbon; Captain of Police Mason Conley of East Liverpool; and D. K. Leyde and Frank Herline of Wellsville, Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad detectives.

These witnesses have not been advised about what matters they are to testify.

Wires Repaired

All telephone and light wires extending out of Lisbon have been repaired by linemen and the service of both utilities has been restored to normal. Many wires were "down" following the heavy wet snow which fell Wednesday, overloading the wires and pulling them from their hangers.

According to County Surveyor Lloyd C. Kirk, all main and improved highways are open to through traffic but many roads are still in rough condition, due to the failure of the heavy drifts to melt during the recent warm weather.

Judgment in Default

shirt and collar torn and his money gone.

Thompson staggered to his feet, and ran to police headquarters where he reported the holdup, and Chief of Police T. W. Thompson went immediately to investigate.

At Paterson on the force were put on the case, but so far no real trace of the bandits has been found.

In the darkness of the passageway between the two buildings Thompson was unable to get a good view of the men, and can furnish but a meager description of them.

It is the custom of many stores to deposit Saturday receipts Saturday night and banks are open a short time for this service to stores.

Thompson said he did not see a person in the block as he stepped out of the store to take the money to the bank. The first show at the theaters had been out ten minutes, most shoppers had gone home, and due to the cold no persons were standing in store doorways talking.

Loss Estimated at $300

As all the day's receipts were not counted no accurate statement of the loss could be made by Thompson, but it was estimated at about $300.

The holdup is regarded by police as one of the most daring in Salem's history. The police believe it was well planned, even to the moment, as there did not seem to be a single slipup as the bandits worked on their victim.

Thompson thinks that possibly the bandit who had been standing close to the wall by the store had planned to get inside by some ruse at closing time, but failed in this, waited until Thompson came out.

It is regarded as certain by the police and A. & P. officials, who are here investigating, that someone had secured accurate information concerning the store's method of banking.

Police Are Baffled

The police are baffled due to lack of clues. This holdup follows on the heels of the cleanup of two bandit gangs in Salem, and indicates, the police think, the presence of a new gang of desperadoes in the city and vicinity.

Chief Thompson in his investigation found one of the overcoat and two of the store coat buttons which had been ripped off when the bandits tore the manager's coats open. These buttons and Thompson's clear were lying on the ground on the scene of the holdup.

In falling Thompson cut his hand on some glass, and Sunday this piece of glass was also found. These constitute about the only clues the police have.

Police in surrounding cities have been asked to aid in the hunt for the bandits.

TRYING TO FORCE TAX MEASURE VOTE

Night Sessions Threatened By Senate Administration Leaders

Washington, Feb. 8.—Threatening the senate with night sessions, administration leaders sought today to force a vote upon the section of the new $252,000,000 tax reduction bill, repealing all income tax publicity.

Stubborn opposition to the repeal of publicity, launched by a progressive group from both parties, already has delayed the administration's tax program, developed protracted debate and alarmed Republican leaders over the possibility of a filibuster against the tax bill. As a result, Senator Smoot, R. of Utah, in charge of the bill, announced he would compel the senate to sit in night sessions until the measure is enacted.

In fighting for tax publicity, the progressives warned the senate that "secret handling of tax cases had cost the government millions of dollars in revenue." They charged the move to repeal publicity was launched by big business corporations, who did not want the public to learn how they evaded lawful taxation while the moderate wage earner was compelled to "pay to the limit."

Although the publicity feature held the spotlight, two other big controversial issues must be settled before a final vote is reached on the bill. First, the senate must pass up on the proposed repeal of the federal inheritance tax and second, it must again vote upon the 20 percent maximum surtax, written into the bill last week.

BISHOP OPPOSES DRY MODIFICATION

Manning Says Temperance Society Didn't Speak For Episcopalians.

New York, Feb. 8.—With Bishop T. Manning on record as opposed to the plea for modification of the Volstead act put forth by the Church Temperance Society, Episcopal America today waited upon Dr. James Empringham, national secretary of the society, to divulge the details of the survey which he announced revealed that the membership of the society was overwhelmingly in favor of modification.

Bishop Manning expressed his views from the pulpit of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. The Church Temperance Society did not speak for the Episcopal church of either the nation or the diocese of New York, he said. He made an earnest appeal for law enforcement, and expressed the hope that the prohibition amendment never would be revealed.

Dr. Empringham returned hurriedly from Washington yesterday, when he was told of Bishop Manning's announcement. In so far as it was supposed to represent the sentiment of the Episcopal church, Dr. Empringham said:

"We have never said or indicated that we represented the Episcopal church."

"Bishop Manning will know all about any survey in a few days."

Under the Clayton act the government seeks to force the defendants to dispossess themselves of stocks, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness of any competing company heretofore acquired by them to the end that competition may be fully restored in the baking industry.

William B. Ward and associates were charged by the government with planning since 1921 "to bring all or substantially all of the wholesale bakeries in United States under the control of a single gigantic corporation and thereby to eliminate all competition between the baking companies both locally and in interstate commerce."

shirt and collar torn and his money gone.

Thompson staggered to his feet, and ran to police headquarters where he reported the holdup, and Chief of Police T. W. Thompson went immediately to investigate.

At Thompson's on the force were put on the case, but so far no real trace of the bandits has been found.

In the darkness of the passageway between the two buildings Thompson was unable to get a good view of the men, and can furnish but a meager description of them.

It is the custom of many stores to deposit Saturday receipts Saturday night and banks are open a short time for this service to stores.

Thompson said he did not see a person in the block as he stepped out of the store to take the money to the bank. The first show at the theaters had been out ten minutes, most shoppers had gone home, and due to the cold no persons were standing in store doorways talking.

Loss Estimated at $300

As all the day's receipts were not counted on accurate statement of the loss could be made by Thompson, but it was estimated at about $300.

The holdup is regarded by police as one of the most daring in Salem's history. The police believe it was well planned, even to the moment, as there did not seem to be a single slipup as the bandits worked on their victim.

Thompson thinks that possibly the bandit who had been standing close to the wall by the store had planned to get inside by some ruse at closing time, but failed in this, waited until Thompson came out.

It is regarded as certain by the police and A. & P. officials, who are here investigating, that someone had secured accurate information concerning the store's method of banking.

Police Are Baffled

The police are baffled due to lack of clues. This holdup follows on the heels of the cleanup of two bandit gangs in Salem, and indicates, the police think, the presence of a new gang of desperadoes in the city and vicinity.

Chief Thompson in his investigation found one of the overcoat and two of the store coat buttons which had been ripped off when the bandits tore the manager's coats open. These buttons and Thompson's clear were lying on the ground on the scene of the holdup.

In falling Thompson cut his hand on some glass, and Sunday this piece of glass was also found. These constitute about the only clues the police have.

Police in surrounding cities have been asked to aid in the hunt for the bandits.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Threatening the senate with night sessions, administration leaders sought today to force a vote upon the section of the new $252,000,000 tax reduction bill, repealing all income tax publicity.

Stubborn opposition to the repeal of publicity, launched by a progressive group from both parties, already has delayed the administration's tax program, developed protracted debate and alarmed Republican leaders over the possibility of a filibuster against the tax bill. As a result, Senator Smoot, R. of Utah, in charge of the bill, announced he would compel the senate to sit in night sessions until the measure is enacted.

In fighting for tax publicity, the progressives warned the senate that "secret handling of tax cases had cost the government millions of dollars in revenue." They charged the move to repeal publicity was launched by big business corporations, who did not want the public to learn how they evaded lawful taxation while the moderate wage earner was compelled to "pay to the limit."

Although the publicity feature held the spotlight, two other big controversial issues must be settled before a final vote is reached on the bill. First, the senate must pass up on the proposed repeal of the federal inheritance tax and second, it must again vote upon the 20 percent maximum surtax, written into the bill last week.

BISHOP OPPOSES DRY MODIFICATION

Manning Says Temperance Society Didn't Speak For Episcopalians.

New York, Feb. 8.—With Bishop T. Manning on record as opposed to the plea for modification of the Volstead act put forth by the Church Temperance Society, Episcopal America today waited upon Dr. James Empringham, national secretary of the society, to divulge the details of the survey which he announced revealed that the membership of the society was overwhelmingly in favor of modification.

Bishop Manning expressed his views from the pulpit of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. The Church Temperance Society did not speak for the Episcopal church of either the nation or the diocese of New York, he said. He made an earnest appeal for law enforcement, and expressed the hope that the prohibition amendment never would be repealed.

Dr. Empringham returned hurriedly from Washington yesterday, when he was told of Bishop Manning's announcement. In so far as it was supposed to represent the sentiment of the Episcopal church, Dr. Empringham said:

"We have never said or indicated that we represented the Episcopal church."

"Bishop Manning will know all about my survey in a few days."

MARKET REACTIONARY

New York, Feb. 2.—The market was reactionary at the opening today with losses of a point or more in some of the active stocks. California packing lost 3 1/2 at 11 1/2.

General Motors was down 1 1/2 at 127 1/2; Dodge Motors down 1/2 at 44; Chrysler down 1/2 at 50 1/2; United States Steel down 1/2 at 132 1/2; Pacific Oil down 1/2 at 32; Standard Oil down 1/2 at 53 1/2; Bethlehem Steel down 1/2 at 115; California Petroleum opened 1/2 at 36 and rose to 36 1/2. General Motors and Hudson rallied in the first period.

A good volume of selling orders awaited the opening of the market today as a result of the unexpectedly large aggregate of brokers' loans disclosed in the stock exchange's publication after the close of Saturday's market, and prices of industrial leaders sagged in the early trading. But losses were mostly fractional and there was sufficient buying demand for all stocks offered to turn the tide of prices promptly, and with few exceptions prices were again headed upward before the end of the first half hour.

On the eve of important developments involving the possible merger, California Packing and Postum Cereal sold in large volume at declines of 3 to 11 points from Saturday's close. It was reported that directors of California Packing company would consider officially today an offer of $18 1/2 a share for sufficient stock to carry control, but meanwhile heavy trading took place on the stock exchange at from 17 1/2 to 16 1/2, a loss of 15 points from last week's high. Postum Cereal at 114 showed a shrinkage of about 9 points from its recent high, suggesting a possible "hitch" in the contemplated plan.

Associated Oil studies around 58 1/2 as a result of announcement by New York bankers of acquisition of control of the company and an offer to minority stockholders of $59 a share for their stock. Union Oil of California and California Petroleum were in good demand at slightly higher prices.

St. Louis Southwestern and Missouri Kansas Texas featured this speculative railroad stocks, but the transportation stocks as a class made no response to today's compilation showing that net earnings for 1925 topped a billion dollars for the first time in history. The independent oils were steady but inactive; traction stocks moved in a narrow range, as also did the bulk of industrial, utility, copper and sugar stocks. United States rubber sold up 2 points at 86 1/2, and a number of the low-priced tire stocks sold in good volume at current prices. Call money renewed at 5 percent.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)

Vote On Aluminum Probe On Thursday

Washington, Feb. 2.—The senate judiciary committee today agreed to vote Thursday on the Walsh report criticizing the department of justice for failing to prosecute the Mellon-owned Aluminum Company of America.

A vote today on the report, submitted by Senator Walsh, D. of Montana, was held up because Senator Herrell, R. of Oklahoma, offered a substitute opposing senate action in the controversy "because the department of justice has not yet completed its investigation." Herrell's report will also be considered Thursday.

Class B Cage Tourney Will Be Held In Salem

Six Teams Are Entered In Tourney Feb. 26-27 On the Salem Floor

Six county Class B boys basketball teams have entered the annual tourney of smaller schools which will be staged in Salem High's neutral gym Feb. 26 and 27.

Faculty Manager R. P. Vickers of Salem High, who has been named official manager of the tourney, has received entries from Columbiana, East Palestine, Lisbon, East Fairfield, Ross and Salineville.

It is likely that these six will comprise the entire entry list, as Hamilton has practically decided against entering the meet this year.

Two of the best officials in this part of the state, H. McPherson, of Youngstown, and J. H. State, of Salem, will be in charge of the tourney.

Teams which played here last year complimented Salem on its direction of the tourney, expressed satisfaction with the officiating, which was done by McPherson and Williams, and all made it known that they hoped Salem would stage the meet again this year.

Columbiana put forth a bid for this year's tourney, but the state athletic association ruled that as long as Salem is not a Class B school, the local neutral floor would be used.

State high schools are divided into two groups. Salem, East Liverpool and Wellsville being in the Class A or larger school group.

Complete plans have not been made but it is fairly certain that the order of play will be two games here on the afternoon of Feb. 26, and two at night. The two teams surviving will meet in the finals the afternoon of Feb. 27.

An official scorer will be named by Manager Vickers.

BOYS PLAY ABROAD WHILE HIGH GIRLS BOOK NO CONTESTS

Boys To Go To Carrollton Friday, Praying Akron Central Saturday

Two tough battles are on the schedule for the Salem High Boys cage outfit this week, but the girls have no games carded and will take a rest.

Friday night the Boys go to Carrollton, while an extra game has been arranged Saturday night at Akron Central.

On Friday night the Boys Seconds will travel to Canton McKinley for a return game with the reserves there, and on Saturday night both Boys and Girls second teams will play the Rogers High teams at Rogers. No games will be played in the Red and Black gym this week because of this schedule.

The game at Carrollton is on the regular schedule as a return contest with the five which the Red and Black decisively defeated last Friday here.

But the Akron Central fray is a new addition to the schedule. It was arranged primarily to give the Salem team opportunity to play on an extra large floor against one of the best teams in the state so the players may accustom themselves to conditions they will strike in the N. E. O. Class A tourney this year.

Incidentally the Akron game will be the first this season Salem will not enter as a favorite. Central, coached by "Red" Blair of Ohio State, has a wonderful combination which the Akron experts declare will make quite a showing in the March tournament.

On Monday afternoon, Feb. 22, a holiday, Salem's teams will meet Lisbon and the Salem Boys Seconds the Rogers High five in the Salem gym. These three games will be the first matinee offerings of the present season, and will probably attract a capacity crowd.

On the Friday following, Feb. 19, Salem journeys to Wellsville to meet the Orange and Black who were defeated here earlier in the season, and on Saturday night, Feb. 20, Alliance brings her cagers here for the first games in years between the basketball teams of the two schools.

Last week in the only county games played, a East Palestine won from both Columbiana teams, so the county standing remains the same.

Friday night Wellsville plays at Columbiana, and Palestine at Lisbon.

HELEN SEES FUN IN MATCH WITH MILE. LENGLEN

Gaines, Feb. 8.—Helen Willis is not in the least perturbed over the fact that she met defeat yesterday in the tennis singles, when pitted against Suzanne Lenglen.

The California girl looks forward to the possibility of meeting Suzanne in the singles of the Carlton club tournament this week as "a lot of fun."

"My what a fuss everyone is making about two girls who want to play a game of tennis," said Miss Willis to day when asked about the projected match with Suzanne this week.

"Really, nobody ever thinks about the fun I get out of tennis, in the first place I came to France to study, that is to work. When I play tennis that is play and fun."

Suzanne is a wonderful player and I have a great deal of confidence in her.

She is a wonderful player and I have a great deal of confidence in her.

WHAT'S THE RUSH IN HIRING LANDIS? IS RUPPERT QUIZ

Yankee President Is Not Against Landis, But Wants His Way.

By DAVIS J. WALSH
New York, Feb. 8.—There will be absolutely no loss of life in Washington on tomorrow through a stampede of American Leaguers to climb aboard the band wagon and join the National League's movement for a bigger and better regime for Judge Landis, according to Col. Jacob Ruppert, Yankee president.

The colonel has nothing against Landis, either as a commissioner or as a man. Neither, he believes, has the American League in general.

He merely thinks that some one has rushed in where angels fear a stubbed toe and, in consequence, there has been no chance for concerted action, particularly on the terms of the new contract that might be extended to the judge.

It might be necessary to make a few changes in the document, he intimated, since the old one was largely experimental. At the same time, he admitted that the National League action meant that American Leaguers ultimately would be forced to follow suit or be branded "as disloyal to Landis."

The colonel has no wish to be identified in this way. He really is a pro Landis man but thinks he is entitled to resent what he feels to be a bit of "popping off" out of turn by the National League. He thinks the boys should have gotten together in the back room somewhere and talked things over.

What's the Rush
In brief, everything is Jake, existing to say at the scheduled meeting tomorrow, he will counsel that the American League club owners preserve an aloof and dignified silence, which may come under the head of refined cruelty to some of them.

"As everyone knows, I admire Judge Landis personally and am a strong supporter of his regime," Ruppert declared. "But that doesn't blind me to the fact that the National League was unnecessarily premature in its resolution to extend his term ten years. What was the big rush? The judge's contract has two years to run and both leagues could have gotten together on an extension in due course."

Now, however, we will have to play ball on that resolution or be called disloyal to Landis. I think the National League went out of its way to place us in an embarrassing position. If it wanted baseball to go on record in favor of Landis, I think it would have been more politic for the other league to have called us into conference and discussed the proposition with us.

"For the life of me, I cannot understand this inter-league rivalry of a personal nature between men whose business interests dovetail so closely."

New York—Mrs. Annie Lendrock was believed penniless and treated as a charity patient in the city cancer clinic here. Finally she died—and left the clinic $10,000.

Alliance—Purchase of an 18 acre tract in the southwest section of the city for the proposed new grade and union high school and athletic field is under fire before the school board.

Billion Ancestors Getting Blame For Our Stupid Fears

Chicago, Feb. 8.—When Johnny has a tantrum and refuses to eat his porridge, mother says he's like his father.

Well, mamma is right in a sense, only she shouldn't have stopped with Johnny's immediate paternal ancestor. Mamma should have gone back at least thirty generations or 1,000 years, and then perhaps she would have been nearer the mark.

Professor George Herbert Betts, psychologist at Northwestern University, has just completed an interesting study involving 60 of his students and a large amount of research, and his analysis of the test reveals some interesting facts.

Fear of the dark, Professor Betts explains, is predominant in 80 per cent of all children.

Why? "We must go back generations," he answers, "back ages, back cycles of time—back through the links of the chain of heredity that binds us to our parents, great-grandparents, to our parents, our grandparents, great-grandparents, and so on backward to the earliest life from which we sprang."

"Think for a moment what this means. The child in the home to day has two parents. Each of these had two, thus giving the child four grandparents. The fourth generation back gives the child 16 ancestors; the fifth, 32, and so on. Go back 30 generations, less than 1,000 years, and the blood of more than a billion ancestors converges to make your child what he is today."

manner of death of a young woman, whose body, almost nude, was frozen in a cake of ice along the shore of the Delaware river at Billingsport, near here.

Authorities expressed the belief that the woman, about 25 years old, had been brutally slain and her body flung into the river.

The woman's body had been horribly mangled, a gash three inches long had torn her forehead, a part of one ear was torn off, and her skull was fractured. Coroner Atlee B. Adams, who took charge of the body, expressed the conviction that the woman had been beaten to death and thrown into the water.

The body, clothed only in torn underwear and a single stocking, was discovered by John Koehler, a Billingsport boy, while he and two companions were walking along the river front. The body was completely encased in a thick ice flow that had washed ashore.

Canton—Buildings soon razed to make room for a new Marcus Loew theater city. The new playhouse will cost about $75,000.

Y. W. Campaign Is Started In Alliance

Alliance, Feb. 8.—Miss Clara S. Rosfield, secretary of the National Y. W. C. A., has arrived in Alliance to launch the membership work for the new Y. W. Plans for launching the membership work have been completed and the architect's plans considered.

It was under the direction of the Alliance Quota club that a survey of the city was sent to the national Y. W. C. A. last year asking that a branch be started here.

"I DO NOT want to be thin! I just want to be my right weight! I just want these hollows filled out. I just want enough firm, plump flesh on my bones to fill out my figure."

Of course you do. You want a figure that you can drape your clothes on—not just hang them on! What's the use of having pretty clothes, if they just hang on you?

And what would you say if you were told you could have the figure you want? A graceful, well rounded body—firm, solid flesh—just enough—just your right weight? You'd be mighty happy, wouldn't you?

Well, then, be happy—because you can have it! Put plenty of red cells in your blood and watch your weight go up to where you want it! That's what the matter with you! Your blood is impoverished. You need more rich, red blood. S. S. S. is the thing to put red blood in your system. S. S. S. helps Nature build red blood cells by the millions.

You just try S. S. S. and watch how quickly you begin to fill out your clothes. Notice your skin clear of unsightly blemishes—your appetite increases—strength comes to flabby muscles and vim and vigor fill your whole system. It's red blood that does it. And S. S. S. surely helps Nature build that red blood.

S. S. S. is sold by all drug stores. The larger bottle is more economical.

SIDNEY SMITH

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off. Copyright, 1922, by The Chicago Tribune

LEETONIA

The epidemic of measles and mumps are still spreading. More measles cases are reported than of the other disease. In one grade, South Side, where there should have been 29 pupils there were nine during the latter days of this week.

Dell Thoman of Sebring spent Friday here with his father, Alfred Thoman, who is seriously ill at his home.

Gomer Lewis of Lisbon, county Sanitary officer, was in Leetonia Friday placing quarantines where needed and removing some.

County To Open Road Bids On February 22

COUNTY TO OPEN

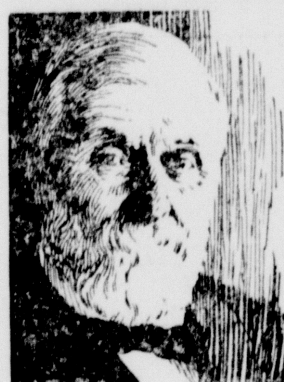

The county commissioners will open bids at 1 o'clock Feb. 22, for the improvement of three sections of the East Liverpool Youngstown Inter-county highway, according to County

Surveyor Lloyd C. Kirk. The jobs, now being advertised, have been estimated to cost $55,677.93.

This road job will consist of the grading and construction of drainage structures on that part of the road between the end of the new grade at the substation on the Y. & O. railroad to the intersection of the new road and the Lincoln highway at Apple's corner. The roadway is to be graded to a width of 28 feet, and the contract for the surfacing of the sections will be awarded before or soon after the grading and drainage structures are completed.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL
AT THE AGE OF 63

"Purges" and "Physics" Bad for Old Folks

While Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, knew that constipation was the curse of advancing age, he did not believe that a "purge" or "physic" every little while was necessary.

To him, it seemed cruel that so many constipated old people had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to "regulate" the bowels of old folks. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but each dose helps to strengthen the bowel muscles, shortens establishing natural regularity. It never grips, sickens, or upsets the system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take.

If past fifty, buy a large 60 cent bottle at any store that sells medicine and just see for yourself.

Theatre

"Abie's Irish Rose" Coming To Grand

Scene from "Abie's Irish Rose," at the Grand theater, Monday, Feb. 15.

At last Salem theatergoers will have the opportunity to witness Anne Nichols' famous comedy that started the entire amusement world by its record-breaking runs in the larger cities. "Abie's Irish Rose" will be the attraction at the Grand theater, Monday, Feb. 15.

Now well into its fourth year in New York it has kept that city in a delirium of laughter. The great cast and production seen here is the one that played all the prominent mid-west cities. Abie is said to be just about the funniest play ever written. Laughter at first is said to be sporadic and intermittent, grows until no one attempts to hold out against it, and the theater is said to fairly quake over "Abie's Irish Rose."

It is a play that you will enjoy without feeling afterward that you were a fool. It is joyously ridiculous.

ACTRESS HERE

Mary Anderson, noted Hollywood luminary, arrived in Salem early today for personal appearances at "The Grand in connection with her newest starring vehicle, "Wildness of Youth," a drama of the jazz age.

"Sunshine Mary" as she is affectionately known to the film colony, expects to make some scenes for a forthcoming production, "The Lady in Black" while here in Salem, and the stage of the Grand has been offered to her for use. She will accept, her advance man said. It is possible that faces of leading local amateurs may be seen in these scenes with Mary. "Wildness of Youth" is a picture with plenty of thrills, built on an unusual plot, and has a large supporting cast for Miss Anderson.

STATE'S PROGRAM

Two features are billed at the State today and Tuesday. Roald Amundsen's official motion pictures taken on his attempted airplane flight to the North Pole are included in the bill.

Admittedly, brides have many troubles, but none ever had more than Mildred June experiences in the new William Fox production, "Troubles of a Bride" at the State.

The story concerns Mildred Patterson, daughter of a wealthy banker who is all set to marry Robert Wallace, a young engineer, until Gordon Blake, played by Alan Hale, appears on the scene. Hale comes primarily to get a cache of important money, but once he gets a look at the prospective bride, he decides to add her to the loot.

Mildred is kidnaped and then the chase begins. A mad automobile race, a running fight, a wreck, a train hold-up and then the heroine, alone on a runaway engine, is rushing headlong toward an open drawbridge and her watery doom. The suspense is terrific and then just when—But, why spoil everything? You must see it to appreciate it.

American "Rock Hounds" Search Strange Lands For Gasoline

New York, Feb. 8.—Among the citizens of America busily engaged in pushing back civilization's frontiers in many lands is a strange clan of men who walk about wearing a peculiar sort of hammer. The scientific name for this genus is geologists, but they are more familiarly called "rock hounds."

"American oil companies," says a recent bulletin of the American Research Foundation, "have a far-flung army of scientists, mostly youngish men, who are penetrating the jungles of the tropics, the ice-bound reaches of the Arctic, the sands of the driest deserts and even poking around in submerged lands and swamps."

"These men are the advance guard of the great oil company organizations. They feed on wild pigs, monkeys, lizards and fish in the tropics, or occasionally put a bit of lead into a sea lion or walrus or polar bear in the north. In the Orient perhaps they eat shark fins or caterpillars."

"They go into strange and out-of-the-way places. They have been known to do battle with natives who could not understand why they cracked pieces of rock, ran surveys, looked through strange glasses and put down mysterious writings on paper."

"Everywhere they go these geologists are seeking the proper sort of rocks and the necessary formations. If they find them, a few millions of dollars may be spent, for good luck or bad, so that the motor cars can be kept running. Getting gasoline to the public is much more than building a filling station on a busy corner."
